

How can Drama support your future?

We offer Drama to all students at KS3 and as an option at GCSE. We encourage your continued study in this fantastic subject but we understand that choice and personal interest are important aspects of worthy study. Whether you have continued your study of Drama into GCSE or not you will have gained access to this enriching subject and its study will have taught you to think differently and deeply.

A GCSE in Drama prepares students for the outside world and is not just for people who want to be actors or work in the theatre or media. Students will complete the course with added confidence and a strong ability to work as part of a group also gaining excellent communication skills, all of which are of benefit in higher education. GCSE Drama is highly regarded by colleges and universities. Next steps could be A-Level Drama or Theatre Studies or BTEC Level 3 Performing Arts

Many people who study Drama go on to pursue careers in:

- Any of the arts
- Media
- The communications industry
- Teaching
- Law
- Marketing and in any career which deals with the public.
