You can receive them in two ways

*You cannot get anybody else to collect them without signed authorisation.

The Exam Boards results slips will be posted out to you on Thursday 26th August 2010.

EXAM CERTIFICATES

The actual certificates will be available for collection in person (*see above note) from 8:30 am to 6:00 pm
from Acklam Grange School on Tuesday 7 December 2010

After that date we cannot guarantee we will be available to give you the Certificates when you call.

We regret, but for reasons of security we cannot mail them to you.

- Be aware we are only allowed to hold certificates for one year (August 2011) after which we have to return them to the Awarding bodies.
- If you need them after that date you will have to pay (at today's prices) £30 per certificate and, with five Boards being used by the School, the usual cost will be £150.
- People have contacted us after years because they need them for a change of job, because they are emigrating, join the Forces or for further training.

DO NOT LOSE THEM!
